

Meayar is a Service Measurement Company that is specialized in mystery shopping, Market Research, Training and Coaching and other forms of performance measurement. Our mystery shopping techniques include in person, telephone, mail, emails and the internet.

We aim to assess, monitor, measure and evaluate how well companies deliver their services

Our mystery shopping programs are designed to bring customers understanding into your business, turn information into management insight and share customers' feedback across the whole organization.

Our mystery shopping programs include hiring and training; screening, profiling and highly train and appoint the appropriate mystery shoppers to visit your locations, then taking their findings and report them in a user friendly, informative and timely manner.